CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America held a spirited monthly meeting at St. John's Hall on Friday night of last week. William Cushing presided and after the regular routine work for the future was discussed. Gen. Michael Reicher made a stirring talk, pointing to the growth of the Catholic Knights in other States, and urging the Louisville branches to make earnest effort to increase their membership. Others spoke in like manner and said that the advantages offered by the Catholic Knights should be more fully made known to the public, especially as they rank first among the fraternal insurance societies of the United States.

MORRIS RETURNS THANKS.

Louisville, Ky., October 24, 1916—Kentucky Irish American—Gentlemen: Being one of the winners in the world series popularity contest which your interesting paper conducted so successfully, allow me to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for your generosity and the interest which you take in the Twin City Baseball League. The trip was so thoroughly arranged for our comfort and enjoyment that it will leave in my mind kind thoughts for the paper which is a pleasure to its many readers. I also wish to thank my friends and the many members of Mackin Council, Y. M. I., for their untiring efforts in canvassing in my behalf. Thanking you again and may your prosperity be continued, I am yours truly, ROBT. J. MORRIS.

HELPING THE SISTERS.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle of the Sisters of Mercy are making elaborate preparation for the annual entertainment to be held in the Academy Auditorium, 1176 East Broadway, on the afternoon and evening of November 3. There will be many handsome awards for the games, and in addition there will be a number of added features for the entertainment of old and young. For those who desire a light luncheon will be served. The Sisters of Mercy have done much good here, and it is hoped all their friends will attend this entertainment.

HOLY CROSS.

With impressive ceremony and before a large congregation twenty-five new members were enrolled in the Holy Name Society at Holy Cross church last Sunday evening. Organized only a few months ago, this society has now a membership of over 200, which it is hoped to double. Rev. Father Brey was celebrant of the solemn vespers, and after a forceful sermon by the Rev. Joseph O'Grady, pastor of St. Aloysius church, the enrolling of new members took place, the services concluding with benediction. The officers of the society are John Duttlinger, President; Ben Linne-mann, Vice President; Joseph Sohm, Secretary, and Barney Campbell, Treasurer.

EUCHE AND LOTTO.

Monday evening the ladies of St. Patrick's congregation will entertain with another of their enjoyable euche and lotto parties in the school hall at Thirteenth and Main. The ladies for the evening will be Mesdames Jesse Beaman, Mary Herms, Della Cleary and Misses Rosaleen Delaney, Florence Rihn, Henrietta Wolf. Games will be called at 8 o'clock, and at their conclusion a consolation prize will be awarded.

BEN SAND HERE.

Ben J. Sand, one of our former prominent Louisville Democrats, who has been stationed at Detroit, Mich., for the past two years as Inspector, is here on a visit to remain until after the election. Mr. Sand tells of the stupendous growth of Detroit and the top-notch wages paid there to workmen, but which is offset by the high cost of rents, living, etc., and advises Louisville workers to stay at home. He pays a high tribute to Henry Ford, who he claims is the idol of not only Detroit, but the whole of Michigan, and believes that his espousal of President Wilson's cause will greatly aid the Democratic party, with a good chance of carrying Michigan, a Republican State.

INITIATION NEXT MONTH.

At the meeting of Division 4, A. O. F., Monday evening it was announced that an initiation would be held November 27 and that the degree team would begin rehearsals right away. President John Hennessy announced that at present there were about thirty candidates awaiting the degree and many more would be added by next month. Arthur O'Brien and Timothy Kelly were elected to membership.

FOURTH DEGREE.

Dr. J. W. Fowler, Superintendent of the City Hospital, was elected Faithful Admiral of Louisville Assembly 390, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, at that organization's meeting in Klein's blue room. Other officers were elected as follows: Camden R. McAtee, Faithful Navigator; Harry A. Appling, Faithful Controller; Harry T. Colgan, Faithful Captain; Col. Joseph P. McGinn, Faithful Inside Sentinel, and Al C. Brand, Faithful Outside Sentinel. The meeting was well attended and a banquet was enjoyed prior to the election.

BISHOP A WORKER.

Bishop Lenihan, of Great Falls, Mont., started early this month on his visitation to the parishes in the southern part of his extensive diocese. During his two months' absence from home he will bless two hospitals; dedicate twenty-two new churches and administer the sacrament of confirmation to over sixty classes. There are ten more new churches and schools in the northern part of the diocese that are ready for dedication, but the Bishop will not visit that section of the State before next year.
